

TREASURY DEPARTMENT
UNITED STATES SECRET SERVICE

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20220

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

December 9, 1963

Mr. John A. McCone
Director, Central
Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. McCone:

I was very pleased with the fine cooperation we received from your Agency in implementing the security provisions for the funeral of the late President John F. Kennedy, November 25, 1963.

25X1

Through arrangements made with Mr. [redacted] agents of your Agency under the supervision of Messrs. [redacted] were immediately placed at our disposal. Their services were utilized at St. Matthews Cathedral, Arlington Cemetery, and all along the route of the funeral procession from the Cathedral to the Cemetery.

STAT

STAT

With pressing problems of your own, I can imagine the difficulty in mustering this group on relatively short notice. Also, I understand that Mr. [redacted] had an additional force of men available if they had been needed.

STAT

All of your representatives carried out their assignments with the highest degree of efficiency and effectiveness.

I am deeply grateful.

Sincerely,

James J. Lawley

(EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE)

200212